

York Global Migration Project

Research Symposium

Tuesday, December 9, 2025
12:00-2:00PM Academic Core 2M04

Join us for the York Global Migration Project Research Symposium highlighting the lived experiences of Haitian and Italian migrants in New York City.

- Student-led phenomenological research
- Insights into how migrants understand identity, belonging, and cultural adaptation
- Cross-cultural themes from Haitian and Italian migration narratives
- An open invitation to engage in conversation about global movement and human resilience
